IN AS MUCH as C. E. Clough is the lowest bidder and further IN AS MUCH as the paragraph on page 5 of specifications, provides that the architect reserve the right to make any alterations in the plans, whether they are additions or omissions giving to the contractor an order in writing for the same, and the contract shall not be viciated by such changes, but a fair addition or deduction is to be made to the contractor according as such alterations increase or diminish to value of the work.

THEREFORE be it RESOLVED that the contract be awarded for the building and completion of the President's residence according to the plans and specifications to C. E. Clough, subject to such changes and modifications as will bring the cost of the building within the amount at the command of the Board.
