

Thomas Reagan
Professor and Chair, Teacher Education Department
Great Basin College
Elko, Nevada

Thomas Reagan is a professor and Chair of the Teacher Education Department at Great Basin College. He has served as the Program Supervisor for Secondary Education since 2007. In addition to serving as Faculty Senate Chair in 2013-2014, he has chaired several institutional committees including Compensation and Benefits, General Education, and the Teacher Education Committee. Since 2013 he has served on the board of directors for the Northeastern Nevada Regional Professional Development Program and WestEd.

Prior to joining the faculty of Great Basin College, Thomas taught math and psychology in rural Nevada high schools.