

Dr. Kenneth Coll
Dean of the College of Education
University of Nevada, Reno

Kenneth Coll became Dean and Professor of Counseling Education in the College of Education at University of Nevada, Reno in July 2013. Dr. Coll came to the University of Nevada, Reno from Boise State University. He was the Associate Dean from 2008-2013. Prior to that he was Chair and Professor of the Department of Counselor Education. He received his Ph.D. from Oregon State University in Counselor Education and Supervision. His M.S. from Emporia State University in Counseling. His B.S. from Bloomsburg University in Business Management.

Dr. Coll is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (LCPC) and a nationally certified Master Addictions Counselor (MAC). For over 25 years he has been an administrator, clinician and counselor educator, engaging in helping and researching effective interventions with at-risk adolescents, and has more than 50 national/international research publications to-date. Dr. Coll also has extensive grant and contract experience with culturally competent school-based best practices.