18. REVIEW OF ACTIONS TAKEN BY CHANCELLOR FOR POSSIBLE ACTION WITH REGARD TO DOCUMENTS PREPARED BY THE NATIONAL CENTER FOR HIGHER EDUCATION MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Chancellor Daniel J. Klaich contracted with the National Center for Higher Education Management Systems (NCHEMS) pursuant to two Consultant Services Agreements. One agreement, dated February 20, 2014, was to develop workforce demand data. This agreement resulted in a briefing memo summarizing the project entitled, “Workforce Needs in Clark County, Nevada,” dated June 23, 2014.

The second agreement involved undertaking activities regarding the provision of community college services in Nevada. This agreement, dated May 1, 2014, involved three parts: 1) preparation of materials, consultation with the Chancellor and testifying before the Nevada Legislature’s Senate Bill 391 committees; 2) preparation of a document concerning provision of community college services in all parts of Nevada, with particular attention to responding to workforce needs; and 3) a two day visit to Nevada to discuss findings and recommendations with key legislators and selected Regents, senior NSHE staff and College of Southern Nevada (CSN) leadership.

Pursuant to this second agreement, NCHEMS produced two documents. One was a Management Letter regarding CSN dated June 23, 2014. The second document was a draft paper titled, “A Community College System for Nevada” dated May 28, 2014. After receiving email comments from Chancellor Klaich, a revised draft of the document was prepared, dated June 6, 2014. Subsequently, the Chancellor and NCHEMS made grammatical changes and an explanatory addition to the June 6, 2014, draft, which were accepted by NCHEMS and the Chancellor as the final version of the document on June 14, 2014.

The Board will review the conduct of the Chancellor in relation to the review and handling of these documents. The Board will specifically address four issues arising from the facts surrounding this matter: 1) should the document titled “A Community College System for Nevada” have been made public; 2) have the important issues regarding NSHE oversight of the community colleges raised in the document been addressed by the Regents; 3) what did the Nevada taxpayers eventually receive from the documents for which they paid; and 4) was there any malfeasance by the Chancellor in actions taken by the Chancellor with regard to the NCHEMS documents.

The Board of Regents’ Special Counsel, R. Scott Young, issued a memorandum dated July 8, 2015, addressing which items contained in the observations section and the recommendation section of the original draft of the paper “A Community College System of Nevada” prepared by

NCHEMS were eventually adopted or are still in the process of being considered for adoption by the Board of Regents [Ref. BOR-18a]. Special Counsel Young also completed a comparison of the “Recommendations” portion of the two draft versions of the paper titled “A Community College System for Nevada” and issued a memorandum with his results dated July 16, 2015 [Ref. BOR-18b]. These memorandums have been provided to the Regents and have been made available to the public on the NSHE website.

A labor attorney and national expert in higher education governance and administration, Stephen Hirschfeld, was retained to conduct a thorough investigation into this matter, and perform such additional research deemed necessary to inform the Regents on whether the actions taken by the Chancellor violated any ethical or governance standards. The Board of Regents will fully address his report and findings.

The Board will consider these reports, as well as any other matters pertaining to actions taken by the Chancellor with regard to the NCHEMS documents, which, pursuant to NRS 241.033, may include a review of the Chancellor’s competence, alleged misconduct, character and mental or physical health. In compliance with the provisions of NRS 241.033, the Board may take administrative action against the Chancellor if the Board determines that such administrative action is warranted after considering the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health of the Chancellor with respect to actions taken by the Chancellor with regard to the handling of the NCHEMS documents.

ESTIMATED TIME: 45 mins.
