Elko

December 27, 1882

The Board of Regents met at Elko on the date above written.

Present: J. S. Mayhugh, President, and C. H. Sproule.

The minutes of October 4 meeting read and approved.

The continuance of the University for the coming year was discussed, and it was ordered that T. W. Stone be continued as Principal of the Preparatory Department for six months, from January 1, 1883, at his present salary.

It was the unanimous decision of the Board to continue the Assaying and Mining Department, but owing to the appropriation for the support of that Department being exhausted, the matter was deferred for future action.

The following bills were audited:

T. W. Stone	Principal for December	$ 250.00
Charles Gardner	Janitor for December	15.00
J. E. Gignoux	A & M Department	250.00
T. W. Stone	Supplies	31.75

	Subtotal	$ 546.75
T. W. Stone	Principal for October	$ 250.00
T. W. Stone	Principal for November	250.00
J. E. Gignoux	A & M Department	500.00
J. E. Gignoux	A & M Department	250.00
Charles Gardner	Janitor, Oct & Nov	30.00

	Final Total	$1826.75

Board adjourned.
