INTRODUCTION

In this report, compliant with NSHE Handbook Title 4, Chapter 24, Section 1, Subsection 9, a. and b. (Policies Concerning NSHE Intercollegiate Athletics), you will find a summary of UNLV Athletics' 2016-17 academic, athletic, and administrative activities. A special thanks goes to Tina Kunzer-Murphy and her team for leading Rebel Athletics in 2016-17.

To start, several benchmarks and highlights from 2016-17 to note:

- UNLV Football, with a 4-8 record, won more games than the previous season in back-to-back years for the first time since 2002 when the team was coached by Hall of Famer John Robinson;
- After one season at the helm of the program (11-21 record), UNLV men's basketball head coach Marvin Menzies signed a recruiting class that has been ranked as high as 12th in the nation;
- Women's basketball went 22-11 and received a postseason bid for the first time since the 2011-12 season;
- UNLV's Olympic sports captured six conference titles and made five NCAA appearances, led by men's golf's "Elite Eight" finish;
- Despite losing the Governor's Series, the athletics department finished 80th overall in the Learfield Director's Cup, which was its best showing since 2005-06 and ranked fifth in the Mountain West:
- The overall cumulative grade point average of all UNLV student-athletes (subsequent to the Spring 2017 semester) was 2.99. Nine of 16 teams had a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or greater and all teams had a multi-year APR score of 930 or better (no penalties);
- The athletics department raised a record grand total of $21.8 million and the largest single pledge in UNLV Athletics history was received - $10 million by the Fertitta Family toward the construction of a state-of-the-art football training facility, which will be known as the Fertitta Football Complex;
- UNLV won the Mountain West Community Service Award with a record 13,058 total volunteer hours as calculated by the Mountain West formula.

On June 1, I began as UNLV's Director of Athletics. On my first day, I laid out seven priorities for the summer that our team, as well as our programs, could expect:

- 1. Share the Vision
- 2. Get to know our Athletic Department Team
- 3. Understand the Institution
- Analyze Budget 4.
- 5. Begin analyzing the Athletics Infrastructure
- 6. Begin to know some of our External Constituencies
- 7. Get up to speed with the Raiders Stadium Opportunity.

INTRODUCTION

We have made progress on these objectives and look forward to sharing with you.

This summer, we have completed our SWOT discussions (and will have our team in place by December.) In September, we will begin a collective discussion of our mission statement and core values, with a goal of identifying and refining them by December, before we kick off our specific strategic planning in January.

We know the investment and pride that people have in UNLV Athletics. We are in the leadership development business with the expectation that we will lead in all that we do: academically, athletically, and administratively. Specifically, we will:

- Graduate leaders with a meaningful career path;
- Relentlessly compete and win championships; and
- Serve as a point of pride and unity for our global UNLV community.

Our goal is to be the best in the West and we will work every day to make you proud.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve UNLV Athletics.

Go Rebels!

Desiree-Reed Francois UNLV Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

REBEL ATHLETICS BUDGET SUMMARY

Summary Information on Athletics Budget Update to Board of Regents

Revenue Numbers Adjusted

While the UNLV Athletics budget review is not yet complete, for purposes of this timeline, the following modifications were set forth for Fiscal Year 2018:

- In light of past ticket sales history, UNLV Athletics decreased men's basketball and football revenue by $750,000.00 and $377,000.00, respectively;
- Consistent with ticket sales recent history analysis and past giving, UNLV Athletics decreased the Rebel Athletic Fund (RAF) annual operating fund revenue by $1,800,000.00 in priority seating and restricted gifts; and
- Pursuant to the newly agreed to multimedia rights agreement, UNLV Athletics increased this item by $800,000.00 to reflect the new contract amount.

Institutional Support Context

In Fiscal Year 2017, institutional support was $5,138,805.00, which is below the $8,640,000.00 Mountain West average, the $12,820,000.00 American Athletic Conference average, and the $9,140,000 Group of 5 average. So that UNLV Athletics may transparently and proactively budget, institutional aid will be allocated; however, the specific accounts are being determined.

As it relates to institutional support, for purposes of this analysis, even with this transparent and proactive re-designation (which is less than FY 2017), UNLV Athletics would still be under the Mountain West Average of $8,640,000.00.

REBEL ATHLETICS BUDGET SUMMARY

FY 2017: Athletic Department Budget Deficit Reduction

It was expected FY17 would be a "down" year financially because UNLV Athletics had not scheduled a non-conference "away" football payout game and had incurred costs resulting from the transition of the basketball program, coupled with a projected decline in ticket revenue. The FY17 budget submitted at the beginning of the fiscal year projected a ~$3.5m operating deficit. It was later reported at the February 2016 Athletic Ad Hoc committee that the projected operating deficit had risen to ~$4.9m, due mostly to declining revenue from football tickets and men's basketball ticket sales (and priority seating), which fell below the department's projections. The University committed to working on the FY17 athletic budget deficit and improving the actual year-end balance. The University ultimately provided ~$5.1m in support to balance the athletic budget in Fiscal 2017. A variance analysis in this report highlights how the deficit increased and the sources that helped reduce it.

FY 2018: The Balance Budget Statement

This report includes the Fiscal 2018 budget. As noted above, the following strategies will be employed:

- Institutional aid will be proactively and transparently allocated, with the specific accounts to be determined;
- UNLV Athletics recently negotiated a new multi-media rights contract. The new multi-media rights contract is ~$25,000,000.00 more over ten years than the previous agreement and ~$8,000,000.00 more than the next best offer;
- The fifty-cent-per-credit student fee recently approved by the Board will generate approximately $350,000.00 in each of the next four years;
- The merger of Thomas and Mack with Athletics into Rebel Athletics which will provide synergy and at a minimum an increase of $340,000.00 in annual revenue;
- A reallocation of resources that were intended for athletics, but managed elsewhere (approximately $900,000.00 in indirect support to direct support) were reallocated; and
- A strategic assessment of the budget and athletic department infrastructure is underway.

ATHLETIC BUDGET

REBEL ATHLETICS BUDGET SUMMARY

Moving Forward

For FY 18 and beyond, UNLV Athletics will employ the following strategies to enhance revenue and plan for the future:

- Assess and evolve the RAF fundraising model to elevate strategic fundraising initiatives, including the annual fund and capital projects;
- Enhance and produce coordinated content to tell the Rebel Athletics "story" amongst marketing, • communications, ticketing, group sales, and revenue producing units;
- Enhance fan engagement activities, including "driveway-to-driveway" strategies, and gameday • atmosphere;
- Aggressively pursue, secure, and put on first-class entertainment showcasing UNLV's campus to • the broader Las Vegas community;
- Design and implement a logical and realistic budget<sup>1</sup>, athletic department infrastructure, and culture; and
- Persistently evaluate and schedule strategic football and basketball games<sup>2</sup>.

UNLV Athletics will be efficient in its operations, good stewards of its resources, do things the right way, and will work diligently to make this Board, this campus, and this community proud. By FY 2019, UNLV Athletics expects that the RAF evolution, fan gameday experience enhancement, coordinated and cutting edge communications, football and basketball scheduling revenue, combined with a strategic budget and athletic department infrastructure evaluation will improve not only the overall bottom line but will build a foundation for the future of Rebel Athletics.

&lt;sup>1</sup> UNLV Athletics will spend the fall analyzing its budgets globally. Upon cursory review, there is not much more to be cut to remain competitive, not lose quality coaches, and most importantly, provide for its 450 student-athletes. The austerity measures that were put in place in 2008 have not been repealed or even reviewed.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY & DIVERSITY

To ensure diversity and equal opportunity in the hiring of athletic department coaches, UNLV Intercollegiate Athletics follows the University's compliance policy outlined in the mission statement below. The method of recruitment guidelines, outlined on the next page, adhere to this policy.

UNIVERSITY COMPLIANCE POLICY

Reaffirmation of Commitment to Equal Educational and Employment Opportunity Mission Statement:

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) is committed to and will provide equality of educational and employment opportunity for all persons regardless of race, sex, age, color, national origin, ethnicity, creed, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender, marital status, pregnancy, veteran status, or political affiliation except where sex, age, or ability represent bona fide educational or employment qualifications or where marital or veteran status are statutorily defined eligibility criteria for federal or state benefit programs. Further, the university seeks to promote campus diversity by enrolling and employing a larger number of minorities and women where these groups have historically been and continue to be under-represented within the university in relation to availability and may extend preference in initial employment to such individuals among substantially equally qualified candidates, as well as to veterans, Nevada residents, and current state employees seeking promotion.

This affirmation is published in accordance with 41 CFR 60 and is in keeping with Title VII & Title IX of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Executive Order 11246; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974; the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1988; Nevada Revised Statutes; and the Code and Policies of the Board of Regents of the Nevada System of Higher Education.

To ensure that equal educational and employment opportunity exists throughout the university, a resultsoriented equal opportunity/affirmative action program has been implemented to overcome the effects of past discrimination and to eliminate any artificial barriers to educational or employment opportunities for all qualified individuals that may exist in any of our programs. The university aims to achieve, within all areas of the university community, a diverse student body, faculty, and staff capable of providing for excellence in the education of its students and for the enrichment of the university community.

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas reaffirms its commitment to equality of educational and employment opportunity in its relationships with all members of the university community and its commitment to the elimination of any documented historical and continuing underutilization of women and minorities among the student body or employee complement. The University of Nevada, Las Vegas is committed to this program and is aware that with its implementation, positive benefits will be received from the greater utilization and development of previously underutilized human resources.

As an institution of higher learning, UNLV represents a rich diversity of human beings among its faculty, staff, and students and is committed to aspiring to maintain a campus environment that values that diversity. Accordingly, the university supports understanding and appreciation of all members of its community, regardless of race, sex, age, color, national origin, ethnicity, creed, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, marital status, pregnancy, genetic information, veteran status, or political affiliation.
